2019

Woden Primary School

Thank you for your patience and understanding with the school closure on Thursday and Friday. The leaks have been resolved but with old buildings such as Woden, I can only hope the warmer weather will come quick!

This half term is full of informative workshops and parent's evening is now just around the corner. Further details for the workshops can be found below and the dates on the reverse of this letter.

News and Information

World Book Day/Comic Relief Day

World Book Day fun activities have been rearranged for Friday 15th March and children are welcome to add Red Nose to their costumes as it is a Comic Reflex Day too. Unfortunately the storyteller will not be able to hold the workshop on this day but we are hoping to rearrange the booking in the near future.

Parent's Evening

Parent's Evening will be on Wednesday 20th March 3.15-5.45pm. Can we please ask that you arrive promptly for your allocated time slot. Appointments lists are often completely booked for all teachers, therefore it will not be possible to see anyone without an allocated time. The main door to reception will be open until 4pm and the KS1 hall door will be used after this.

Book Fair

A Scholastic book fair will be running from Monday 18th March till Thursday 21st March everyday after school, including during parents evening.

West Midlands Safari Park

Monday 6th May (Bank Holiday) will be a family day out to West Midlands Safari Park. The tickets cost £30 per adult and £28 per child—this also includes wrist bands. For further information please see Mrs Warren.

SATs and Phonics Meetings

KS1 SATs, KS2 SATs and Year 1 Phonics information meetings are being held this term. Please see the 'Important Dates' list on the reverse of this letter for times and places. These sessions will provide information about the tests your child will be taking and is also an opportunity to ask any questions you may have.

Nursery Information Week

Open sessions will be held in Nursery for both morning and afternoon sessions from Monday 25th March to Friday 29th March. These sessions will provide parents with the opportunity to look around the nursery and ask staff any further questions.
