Woden Primary School

Welcome back to the second half of the Spring term. This half term will be full of informative workshops including the launch of Veg Power. We will also look forward to sharing children's work once again as the parent's evening is just around the corner too. Further details for the workshops can be found below and the dates on the reverse of this letter.

News and Information

Veg Power

We will be supporting the 'Eat Them to Defeat Them' campaign to encourage children to eat more vegetables all through this half of the Spring term. The campaign has been created by Veg Power in partnership with ITV, Channel 4 and Sky. It is an award winning campaign and also well supported by celebrities and chefs. Look out for the reward charts and sticker packs in school bags sent out this week. To find out more and for great recipes or expert tips please go to: EatThemToDefeatThem.com.

Parent's Evening

Parent's Evening will be on Thursday 19th March 3.15-5.45pm. Can we please ask that you arrive promptly for your allocated time slot. Appointments lists are often completely booked for all teachers, therefore it will not be possible to see anyone without an allocated time. The main door to reception will be open until 4pm and the KS1 hall door will be used after this.

Book Fair

A Scholastic book fair will be running from Tuesday 17th March till Friday 20th March everyday after school, including during parents evening.

SATs and Phonics Meetings

KS1 SATs, KS2 SATs and Year 1 Phonics information meetings are being held this term. Please see the 'Important Dates' list on the reverse of this letter for times and places. These sessions will provide information about the tests your child will be taking and is also an opportunity to ask any questions you may have.

All information and much more is also available on our website: www.wodenprimary.org
